

RESOLUTION 06/2024

STUDY GROUP ON THE INTERNATIONAL LAW OF REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

The 81st Conference of the International Law Association, held in Athens, Greece, 25 - 28 June 2024:

ACKNOWLEDGING the substantial and significant work accomplished by the Study Group on the International Law of Regional Organizations, as reflected in its Final Report, in exploring the law and practice of regional international organizations with a view to better understanding the relevance and impact of this law and practice on public international law;

EMPHASISING the importance of the analysis presented in the Final Report regarding the definition of regional international organizations, their influence on the international institutional order and on the development of international law, and a potential regionalization of international law;

TAKES NOTE of the significant issues of international law identified by the Study Group and BRINGS them to the attention of all interested;

COMMENDS the Final Report of the Study Group;

RECOMMENDS to the Executive Council that the Study Group, having completed its mandate, be dissolved.