

Canadian Council
on International Law Conseil canadien
de droit international

SQDI
Société québécoise
de droit international

Joint Webinar

Prime Minister Carney's Davos Speech: Implications for International Law

Wednesday 25 March 2026

4:00-6:00 pm EDT

The Canadian Council on International Law (CCIL), the International Law Association of Canada (ILA-Canada) and the Quebec Society of International Law (SQDI) present a joint webinar looking critically at Prime Minister Carney's Davos speech. Our panelists will discuss whether international law is facing a rupture or a transition and the implications for its study and practice.

PANELISTS

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe Joanna Harrington

professor | professeur,
Dalhousie University,
Halifax

professor | professeure,
University of Alberta,
Edmonton

Valerie Hughes
trade dispute arbitrator |
arbitre de conflits commerciaux, Ottawa

Chimène Keitner
professor | professeure,
University of California,
Davis

René Provost
professor | professeur,
McGill University |
Université McGill, Montréal

Gib van Ert, KC | c.r.
lawyer | avocat,
Olthuis van Ert,
Ottawa, Vancouver

MODERATORS

Miriam Cohen
Vice-President | viceprésidente, SQDI

Charles-Emmanuel Côté
President | président,
CCIL | CCDI

Oonagh Fitzgerald
President | présidente,
ILA-Canada | ADI-Canada

Free Webinar - Registration Required Simultaneous translation via Wordly

REGISTER NOW